

MONUMENT VALLEY & CANYON DE CHELLY

April 15 -17, 2010

$ 425 pp double, $ 535 per single

Monument Valley provides perhaps the most enduring and definitive images of the American West. The isolated red mesas and buttes surrounded by empty, sandy desert have been filmed and photographed countless times over the years for movies, adverts and holiday brochures. Canyon de Chelly National Monument is spectacular as the sheer walls rising up to 1000 feet with many scenic overlooks, several well-preserved Anasazi ruins and an insight into the present day life of the Navajo, who still inhabit and cultivate the valley floor.

Day 1 We will depart from R.H. Johnson Rec. Center aisle #24 at 6:30am and Sonoran Plaza parking lot at 6:50am, with a rest stop in Camp Verde. We will stop for lunch at Cameron Trading Post and allow time for shopping. Travel to Monument Valley and check into the new View Hotel, with balconies overlooking the valley. Our hotel for tonight is the new View Hotel, which was designed to exist in harmony with this unique land. Every guestroom has a view directly facing the Mittens and decorated in a Navajo Southwest style. The rest of the evening is on your own to enjoy the scenery and have dinner.

Day 2 After breakfast, we will take a 2 ½ -hour tour of Monument Valley with a Navajo driver/guide. We will then have lunch on your own before traveling to and visiting the Canyon De Chelly National Parks Visitors Center. Followed by a drive along the south rim for photo stops. We will then check into our rustic Thunderbird Lodge at the canyons' entrance. The rest of the evening is on your own to enjoy the scenery and have dinner.

Day 3 After breakfast, we will take a canyon tour with a Navajo driver/guide. After lunch at the lodge; we will head south with several rest stops before arriving back around 7:30pm.
