

Olive's and Art

January 15, 2010

$75 per person

Tour Arizona's only working olive farm & mill in a 30-minute tour. Learn about their products, their unique olive tree varieties, see how Extra Virgin Olive Oil is made, and learn about the health benefits of Extra Virgin Olive Oil. Their olive grove in Queen Creek is at the base of the San Tan Mountains in the Gila River flood plains; this region is famous for its high quality fruits and vegetables. The combination of long sunny days and cool desert nights provide the ideal growing conditions for their trees. After the tour, join us for an included lunch at The Olive Mill's del Piero Mediterranean cafe. You will have a choice of ham & cheese, turkey & cheese, salami & cheese sandwich or a vegetarian dish served with chips, drink, olive cup, and a cookie.

After lunch, we will visit the Zelma Basha Salmeri Gallery in Chandler. The focus of the collection lies in two specific areas: Contemporary Western American Art and Contemporary Native American Art. A magnificent collection of art comprised of oils, watercolors, pastel and charcoal drawings, and bronze sculptures by renowned Cowboy Artists John Clymer, Joe Beeler, Jim Reynolds, Howard Terpning, David Halbach, Bill Owen and many others. The collection also includes several works by Native American Contemporary Artists Clifford Beck, David Johns, Cecil Calnimpewa, Dennis Tewa, Larry Yazzie, Orland Joe, Al Qoyawayma, Wilmer Kay and many others portraying oils, watercolors, pastels, basketry, pottery, alabaster and marble sculptures, as well as kachinas. There are well over 2000 pieces displayed throughout the gallery.
