

ROCKY POINT ECOLOGY TOUR

April 5 – 7, 2010

$355 pp double, $455 per single

Travel with us on this ecology adventure to Puerto Peñasco, Mexico. This town is on the Sea of Cortez and has beautiful sandy beaches, gorgeous sunsets, great seafood and Sonoran Style Mexican Cuisine. We will explore the ecology and geology of two natural landmarks, the Pinacate Volcano and the Gran Desierto. This historic and intriguing area offers diverse topography, spectacular vistas, and a multitude of plant and wildlife species. This tour includes transportation, two breakfasts, two lunches, two dinners, lodging, minimum gratuities and attractions listed in the itinerary. Passports are required!

Day 1 - Depart from Depart R.H. Johnson Rec. Center aisle #24 at 7:20am and from the Sonoran Plaza trip parking lot at 7:30am. We will have a rest stop in Gila Bend, before crossing the border. Upon arriving in Puerto Peñasco, we will have an included lunch at Casa del Capitan overlooking the Sea and town. After lunch, we will go to C.E.D.O. for a brief tour and lecture. We will then check into the hotel for two nights. After you have a chance to settle in, join us poolside for a welcome margarita reception. This evening we will enjoy an included Mexican fiesta dinner.

Day 2 - After an included breakfast, we will go to the new visitor's center in the Biosphere Preserve, which is eco-friendly and solar powered. At the base of the Pinacate Volcanic range, in the sand dunes we will learn about the geologic processes involved in the formation of this basin and range, the craters and diversity of life that surrounds them. We will have a bag lunch while at the center. This evening we will have an included dinner at the Puesta Del Sol Restaurant.

Day 3 - This morning, enjoy the included breakfast and free time to explore or relax. We will then have lunch on your own down on the Malecón, with time for shopping before leaving for Phoenix. If you want to bring back any shrimp or fish make sure you bring a cooler. We should arrive back around 7 pm.
